

A Special Worship Service and a College Opportunity

All through this Lenten season, powerful music and reminders of the rituals of baptism have offered paths for reflection and renewed commitment to the heart of the Gospel: God's love for all people.

Sunday, April 2nd:

*Will the Church serve as God's representative in the world?
We will.*

University of the Pacific, the oldest private college in California,
will be at Campbell UMC

Joel Lohr,
Dean of Religious Life,
preaches at 10:00 am

Patrick Day
Vice Pres. for Student Life
presents a workshop
at 11:30 am:
"College for Everyone"

1675 Winchester Blvd
Campbell, CA 95008
www.campbellunited.org

 Campbell United Methodist Church

Become... Be Found... Be Unafraid...